THE KENNEDY SCHOOL OF MISSIONS

PRELIMINARY ANNOUNCEMENT

FOR THE

FIFTH YEAR, 1915-16

The work of the school will begin Thursday morning, September 30. Some of the courses will begin that morning and the remainder as soon as the schedule can be completed. It is expected that all students will be present and have made all needful adjustments of rooms by that time.

The list of courses printed in the Year Book for 1914-15 presents the courses offered in 1915-16, except for the following modifications and additions, which should be carefully noted.

Page 142

The main courses in the New Testament will be given by Prof. Waldo S. Pratt of the Theological Seminary. As thus arranged, the courses are as follows:

NEW TESTAMENT A.

A study of the teaching of Jesus in order, preceded by a survey of the origin and character of the Gospels and followed by a sketch of the first Christian evangelism. (Acts I-XII.)

20 hours. Term 1. PROF. PRATT, No. 50.

NEW TESTAMENT B.

A study of the propagation of Christianity among Gentiles, with a survey of the Epistles in their relation to the formation of Christian churches in the Greek and Roman world.

20 hours. Term 3. PROF. PRATT, No. 51.

ETHICAL TEACHINGS OF JESUS.

A study of the main lines in the ethical teachings of Jesus as reported in the Gospels.

15 hours. Term 2. DR. JOHNSTONE, No. 50.

Page 142

The course in Old Testament History and Introduction will be given in two sections, to be elected as a unit, as follows:

A. 10 hours. Term 1. DR. FENNELL, No. 50a.

B. 20 hours. Term 2. DR. FENNELL, No. 50b.

Mrs. Dwight E. Potter will be associated with Mrs. Platt (Mrs. Labaree) in the work of Missionary Practice, and Prof. John Douglas Adam of the Theological Seminary will co-operate in the case of the men students. As revised, the following courses will be offered:

COMMUNITY STUDIES.

Lectures by the instructor and by experts on organization and conduct of, and co-operation with, social, religious, and civic institutions; visits to institutions. Primarily designed to meet the needs of students in the affiliated schools, but elective under certain circumstances for students in the School of Missions.

15 hours. Term 3. MRS. POTTER, No. 50.

MISSIONARY PRACTICE.

Weekly lectures on methods of missionary work. Observation of various forms of philanthropic and religious work. Supervised service among foreign-speaking peoples, such as conduct of sewing schools, Camp-fire Clubs, visits to homes and hospitals, and teaching English to foreigners. Personal conferences with students by means of which their practical experiences are criticised and translated into terms of their tasks in their respective fields. Required of all women students, except missionaries on furlough. One lecture weekly and an afternoon of work in Hartford, New Britain or vicinity. The placing of students and supervision of work under Mrs. Potter; the lectures by Mrs. Platt (Mrs. Labaree) and frequent personal conferences with her.

A. 30 hours. Term 1. MRS. PLATT, No. 50.

B. 30 hours. Term 2. MRS. PLATT, No. 51.

C. 30 hours. Term 3. MRS. PLATT, No. 52.

ADVANCED MISSIONARY PRACTICE.

For students who have completed courses 50-52 under Mrs. Platt. More responsible social or religious work and a course of readings assigned for examination. Under joint supervision of Mrs. Platt and Mrs. Potter. If arranged for in advance, students engaged in remunerative social work may, under certain circumstances, receive credit in this course.

Hours to be arranged. Terms 1, 2, 3. MRS. PLATT, Nos. 55a, b, c.

CLINICAL CLASS.

Weekly conferences regarding the practical problems arising out of the religious and social work of the students. During the first half year practical religious problems are discussed; during the second half year practical social problems. Required of all men students except missionaries on furlough.

A. 15 hours. First Half Year. PROF. ADAM, No. 4.

B. 15 hours. Second Half Year. PROF. ADAM, No. 5.

Owing to the absence of Professor Mitchell for the year 1915-16, the courses offered by him will be omitted.

Pages 154, 155

The course on Missionary Problems in India (Professor Jones, No. 52) will be reduced to 15 hours.

The course on The Religions of India (Professor Jones, No. 53) will be increased to 25 hours and continue into term 3.

Page 156

The courses in Spanish will be given by Prof. Stanley L. Galpin, Ph. D., Professor of Romance Languages in Trinity College, as follows:

ELEMENTARY SPANISH.

The purpose of the course is the practical acquisition of the language, based upon a thorough understanding of its grammatical structure.

- A. 30 hours. Term 1. DR. GALPIN, No. 50a.
- B. 30 hours. Term 2. DR. GALPIN, No. 50b.
- C. 30 hours. Term 3. DR. GALPIN, No. 50c.

ADVANCED SPANISH.

An advanced course will be arranged to meet the needs of those already acquainted with Spanish. Fifteen hours each term.

DR. GALPIN, No. 51.

Page 157

Arrangements are being made for lecture courses upon China, Japan, Africa, and Latin America. Such courses are given only when called for. Those desiring such courses should report to the Secretary as early as possible. Details will be announced later.

Page 159

Examinations on lectures and assigned readings will be given on the sections of the course on the Care of Health in additional periods.

Note in table of courses, changes in the terms when a few courses are to be given.
